the Village as conveniently may be, and not less than in the proportion of one acre to every twenty-five Inhabitants, according to the last Population Census, has been by such Bill directed to be allotted out of the Commonable Lands or Waste Grounds to the Incumbent of the Living and the Parish Officers for the time being, and the Owners of one hundred acres of Land in such Parish, as Trustees, in trust to let the same in small portions, at low rents, to all Labourers resident in the Parish who may be desirous of hiring the same, such Rents to be paid to the Parish Officers for the time being, in aid of the Poor Rates; or whether there be any special reason why such Allotment cannot conveniently or properly be made in that particular instance, 63.

——— That the exclusion of Roman Catholics from the Jury, in the case of The King v. Barrett, is calculated to affect the public confidence in the pure administration of justice in Ireland; and this House entertains a hope that, in all future trials connected with political questions, Roman Catholics and Protestants shall be indiscriminately allowed to serve as Jurors upon them; 64.

——— That the House do resolve itself into a Committee, with a view of taking into its consideration the propriety of partially or totally repealing the Duty upon Malt, 71.

——— That a Select Committee be appointed to take into consideration the practicability of devising some plan by which a regular and voluntary supply of Seamen may be procured for His Majesty's Navy, without recourse to the practice of forcible impressment, 87.

——— For presenting an Address to His Majesty, to remit the remainder of the term of imprisonment of Levy Emanuel Cohen, of Brighton, a prisoner in the Gaol at Chelmsford, under the Libel Law, 88.

——— That leave be given to bring in a Bill for better regulating the granting of Certificates authorizing Persons to keep common Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling-houses in Scotland, in which Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine and other Exciseable Liquors, may be sold by retail under Excise Licenses, and for the better regulation of such Houses, 96.

——— That the House do resolve itself into a Committee to consider of the Corn Laws, and of substituting, instead of the present graduated scale of Duties, a fixed and moderate Duty on the import at all times of Foreign Corn into the United Kingdom, and for granting a fixed and equivalent Bounty on the export of Corn from the United Kingdom, 100.

——— That leave be given to bring in a Bill to enable local authorities to change Saturday and Monday Fairs and Markets to other days, 111.

——— That a Select Committee be appointed to take into consideration the evidence already before the House relative to the Borough of Warwick, and to report to the House full particulars respecting the cases of Bribery, and the class or description of persons bribed; and whether any treating, and to what extent, by the authority of the Candidates, or their agents, occurred after the issuing of the Writ; and particularly to report whether in the event of disfranchising the parties bribed, or that class of Electors to which they belong, a sound and competent constituency will remain in the Borough, 111.

——— That leave be given to bring in a Bill for relieving the Archbishops and Bishops of the Established Church from their legislative and judicial duties in the House of Peers, 120.

——— That it be an Instruction to the Committee on the Liverpool Freemen Bill, that they have power to limit the operations of the Bill to those Persons whose guilt has been proved before Committees of this House; and to make Provision that all Persons who have been proved before such Committees to have been guilty of giving or receiving Bribes at the Elections of Members of Parliament for the Borough of Liverpool, shall be rendered incapable of voting at any future Election for that Borough, 116.

——— That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, that they have power to make provision, that no person who shall have become a Burgess or Freeman of the said Borough of Liverpool prior to the 1st of December 1830, shall either as such Burgess or Freeman, or in right of any other franchise whatever, vote, or be entitled to vote in the election of a Member or Members to serve in the present or any future Parliament for the said Borough, 116.

——— For bringing up a Clause proposed to be added on the Report of the Mutiny Bill, 125.

——— For agreeing with the Lords in an Amendment to the Turnpike Acts Continuance Bill, 132.

——— For agreeing with a Committee in an Amendment, 133.

——— For appointing a Select Committee to inquire into the circumstances under which the sum of One Penny is demanded for the delivery of each Letter and Newspaper within the limits of the Town of Cheltenham, and other Cities and Towns, 134.

——— For appointing a Select Committee to make further inquiry into the proceedings at the General Election for the City of Coventry in December 1832, and to consider and report to this House thereon, and upon the best means of providing for the future prevention of riots, and for preserving the peace and freedom of Election at Coventry, 135.

——— That His Majesty's Attorney General be directed to prosecute Richard Randall, for the offences proved against him, as appears by the Report of the Select Committee on the Coventry Election, 135.

——— For reading a second time the Saint Pancras Paving Bill, 173.

——— For reading a second time the Amendments to the Bucklebury Inclosure Bill, 193.

——— That leave be granted, that Notice may be inserted three times in some one Newspaper usually circulated in the County of Edinburgh, in the present month of April or the month of May next, of the application now making to Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and constructing a new Harbour, Dock, Piers and other Works at Trinity, in the Parish of North Leith, near the City of Edinburgh, in the County of Edinburgh; and also, that such Notices may be affixed to the Church-door of the Parish of North Leith, in the said County, for three Sundays in the said months of April or May, 226.

——— That a Select Committee be appointed, to inquire and report on the means by which the Dissolution of the Parliament of Ireland was effected; on the effects of that measure upon Ireland, and upon the Labourers in Husbandry and Operatives in Manufactures in England; and on the probable consequences of continuing the Legislative Union between both Countries, 231.

——— For reading a second time the Lord's Day Bill, 238.

——— For adjourning a Debate, upon Motion, for reading a second time the Tithes (Ireland) Bill, 247.

——— That a Select Committee be appointed to inquire into the Pensions charged on the Civil List and on the Consolidated Fund, in order to ascertain the nature and extent of abuses which may have occurred in the granting of the said Pensions, with a view of giving full effect to the Resolutions of this House of the 18th of February last, 253.

——— For now reading a second time the General Register Bill, 262.

——— For now reading a second time the Registry of Deeds Bill, 262.

——— For now reading a second time the General Post Delivery Bill, 262.

——— For now reading a second time the Amendments to the Bucklebury Inclosure Bill, 265.
